The summer garrison of the 57th Guards Rifle Division was located approximately six kilometers northeast of Eisenach and approximately one kilometer east northeast of Grossenlupnitz (near Eisenach). The following points refer to memory sketch Enclosure (A); unless otherwise stated, all buildings were constructed of wood with a pitched roof.

- Point #1 CARBINE AND SUB-MACHINE GUN RANGE. This area was approximately two square kilometers and had pits for small arms fire. These pits were able to accommodate an entire regiment at one time. All units brought their own targets for firing.
- #2 GUN EMBLACEMENT. The 932nd Separate AAA Battalion had six 37mm guns, one battery, emplaced at this position on 24 hour alert duty.
- #3 SPORT GROUND. Approximately 800 square meters; an obstacle course for the 57th Guards Rifle Division.
- #4 TANK PARKING AREA. Used by the 17th Guards Heavy Tank and SP Regiment. The tanks were parked in the open and were covered with a canvas.
- #5 STADIUM. Approximately 200 x 100 m.
